

SUMMER 2013 / 2014

Dear "Pfriends" of Pfeiffer,

Well, here we are again saying the same as we said last year and probably the year before too..."Where has this year gone? It only seems like yesterday it was Christmas". And for me this is very true, so time for a little reflection on 2013 and some planning for 2014.

Thankyou to everyone who helped Chris celebrate his 40th Vintage. It is quite a milestone that Chris has made wine for 40 years or 40 vintages. Just as it is quite a milestone for me to think that next year, 2014, will be 30 years since Chris and I bought the winery, the bridge and the vineyard from Seppelts. How clearly I remember that day and I am sure if you come to any of our events in 2014, you will hear some of the stories.

Thinking of Christmas makes me want to tell you all about our UK wine delivery service we have offered over many years to those of you who like to give our wines that are already in the UK to your "pfriends" and "pfamily" over there. We have enclosed a separate order form for the UK orders (the BLACK one) whereas the order form for the Australian orders is the PINK one. You will also notice another difference because there are heaps more wines available to you in Australia than the ones we have already shipped to the UK. But like all orders, the more information you can give us, the more we can ensure that your wine or your gifts of wine get to where they are supposed to be going, safely and quickly. Please make sure you use your best handwriting as well. The UK Christmas gift service orders MUST be received at the winery by Tuesday, 26th November. If this is not relevant for you, please feel free to pass the information onto a "pfriend" of yours who may like to use this service for their "pfriends" or "pfamily" in the UK. We can now also organise wine orders to the UK at other times of the year too, so keep that one up your sleeve for the "pfuture".

Now, back to being in the 'PINK'! Jen's very special refreshing drink for Summer, our Pfeiffer Seriously Pink features "pfront" and centre of this newsletter. I love it with Tonic, Chris loves it with Soda and Jen loves it 'on the rocks'. We know that you will just love it the way you choose to enjoy it...it is oh SO refreshing!

There are some other exciting new releases too, especially the new vintage of our Pfeiffer The Carson Gewürztraminer which you have had to wait several months for. And, another addition to our Art series of labels, with the brand new and exciting red wine being added, our 2012 Pfeiffer Tempranillo. I mustn't forget my "pfavourite", Pfeiffer Gamay, which we celebrated its release at the Pfeiffer Pfrolic on the Bridge this year. I can't do the Gamay dance very well anymore but I can sing the Gamay song, though I imagine you won't encourage me to give up my day job for it!!!

As well as introducing new wines, I also have to give you the heads up on those wines that we have nearly run out of. If you see LIMITED STOCK next to the wine and it is your "pfavourite", please be quick. We are still holding off on our 2012 Pfeiffer Pinot Noir and our 2012 Pfeiffer Merlot for release at the winery cellar door until next Autumn. Sadly, there is so little stock of these wines and the late frosts this year have diminished our prospects for next years crop, so we are holding onto them for a bit longer. However, having said that, if you are desperate for them, just ring your wine order through and we can include those precious varieties in your Australian wine order.

You will think we are the PARTY winery, when I mentioned at the start of this letter that we had a milestone to celebrate next year too. It is hard for me to believe sometimes that 30 years have passed since Chris and I bought our property. Sometimes it seems like yesterday. We have lots of "pfun pfilled" activities planned for next year including your "pfavourites". The first ones are our Tastes Of Rutherglen dinners in March and our 30th Birthday Party on the Bridge in April. Lock these dates in and PLEASE organise your accommodation immediately in Rutherglen, Wahgunyah or Corowa. They are all busy weekends so this is really important. Dates are inside your newsletter.

Happy Christmas Everyone "pfrom" Everyone of us at Pfeiffer Wines! May your Christmas be joyous, your New Year and all of 2014, healthy and happy and thank you all for your continued support of our winery.

Warmest regards and best wishes,
